DIGGING DEEPER

In what ways do you see our culture treat marriage the same way as the Pharisees did in this passage?

What have you learned or grown in through this passage and through this series about God's view and purpose of marriage?

How does the knowledge that God designed marriage change your understanding of how marriage is supposed to function?

In Matthew 19:8, Jesus talks about the hardness of the Pharisees hearts. Do you agree with Jay that we all have hardness of heart that threatens our marriages? Why or why not?

What encouragement do you find that marriage, like any other aspect of pursuing Christ, is only capable through his power?

What truths from this series do you want to focus on, teach your kids, or pray over and work towards?
