Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse, or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, raised a question?

How have you seen materialism and covetousness blind and affect our world? How has it affected your own walk with Christ?

How does this passage comfort and encourage you in the current world we live in?

This whole section has spoken much of humility. Why do you think humility is so difficult for us? And where have you personally struggled to be humble?

Read 1 Timothy 6:8-10 and 6:17-19. What part of these passages stand out to you? What are you being called to in light of it?

How can you pass this extremely important message onto your children, grandchildren, and those around you?
